JAPAN'S STOCK OF SMALL COIN EXHAUSTED

TOKIO--Japan seems to be entering a shill plaster era. Her stock of small coins is inadequate to keep pace with the advance in the price of commodities and an issue of 50, 20 and 10-sen bills is under consideration and may be issued toward the end of the year. The present high price of silver has tempted some to melt the coins and so transform them into the more valuable form of bullion. This is forbidden by law, but a good example, if any were needed, was given by the Yokohama Specie bank which upon the declaration of the gold ban by the United States, threw all its American gold dollars into the melting pot to ally the nervous fears of the Japanese dentists and jewelers.
